At our college, equal treatment and consideration for all genders, especially the issues faced by women, are given high priority. The educational committee organizes various activities such as seminars and legal guidance to promote gender equality and sensitivity, as well as providing resources like the anti-ragging cell and Kali Umaltana for both male and female students. This year four different activities like

1) The awareness program "Looking at youth" was conducted on Wednesday 21/12/2022 for the students of the college in association with the ICC and New English School Junior College Sangola.

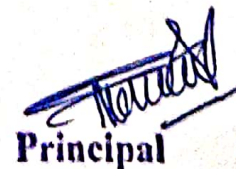

2) The awareness program on Sexual Harassment and Cybercrime was organised by the Internal complain committee on 20/10/2022

3) The awareness camp in collaboration with Taluka Legal Services Union and Internal complain committee on 09/11/2022. In this camp six lawyers with Taluka justices were guided the students on Guided different aspects Like Violence's Legislations, Cyber Crime, Online Robbery Session, Poxo etc.

4) Antiragging committee has conducted one day workshop on UGC recommended and short listed short film for first year students.

Each year, a plan is created to carry out these initiatives and committees regularly update the students on their progress to spread awareness. Safety measures for women on campus include CCTV surveillance and a health center for immediate medical assistance. This year two health camps were arranged for students such as two days Free eye check up camp on 10/10/2022 to 11/10/2022 and bone check up camp. Additionally, if any grievances or concerns arise for women, a dedicated committee is available for resolution. A complaint box is also available for students to address any other issues they may face. Lastly, a separate reading room is provided for female students to help them focus on their studies.
