Internal Examination Committee Annual Report 2018-19

According to the guidelines of Punyashlok AhilyaDevi Holkar Solapur University, Solapur, internal exams are conducted in the colleges. There is an internal exam committee in the colleges to conduct internal exams and one professor from each program is included in this committee. Six members and one committee head are employed in this committee. Before each semester i.e. in the first semester in the month of September the internal examination is conducted for all the classes and also in the second semester the internal examination is conducted in the month of February. The examination is conducted, after the examination, the answer sheets written by the students are handed over to the professors of each subject and within ten days the answer sheets of the students are checked and handed over to the examination committee along with the mark sheets. Examination are conducted according to the time table made by the examination department. Internal examination marks are published to the students based on notice board. If there are any grievances of the students, those grievances are removed by the head of the examination department and the professors of that subject. Those students could not appear for the internal examination for example students participated in sports activities are enrolled in examinations. Exams are conducted in a transparent manner in such a way that re-sampling is planned for the participating students NSS participating students or NCC participating students. Keeping in view the valid difficulties of the students some students are given opportunity to re-sit the exam.
